3. Indemnity

- a. Service Provider agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Forwarder and any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives, and customers (the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all claims, actions, demands, legal proceedings, liabilities, damages, losses, judgments, authorized settlements, costs or expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, (the "Damages") arising out of or in connection with any actual claims, including but not limited to:

AGREEMENT

4. Limitation of Liability

- a. Neither party, including either party's successors, heirs, or assigns, will be entitled to indirect, incidental, economic, consequential, or punitive damages, including lost profits, based on any breach or default of the other party, unless such damages are the result of the party's intentional misconduct.
- b. Service Provider shall not have any right, title, interest, ownership, or claim in the goods tendered for transportation services by or for Forwarder under this Agreement. Service Provider will not in any way encumber or otherwise impair Forwarder's right to possession of such goods, including, but not limited to, asserting any lien or withholding any goods on account of any dispute as to prices or alleged failure of Forwarder to pay any charges incurred under this Agreement. Service Provider waives and releases any lien or right to a lien. Service Provider shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Indemnitities (as that term is used previously in section 3.a) from all claims, losses, attorneys' fees, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses or suits arising out of or resulting from labor, materials, services or supplies furnished by Service Provider or by subcontractors or Service Providers of Service Provider and from all related liens.
- c. Service Provider Liability:
 - i. Service Provider's Cargo Liability. Unless otherwise limited in the specific SOW or Schedules, the parties agree that all liability standards and burdens of proof are herein governed by 49 U.S.C. Section 14706. Forwarder assumes no responsibility for delivery by Service Provider of the involved freight without loss, damage, injury or delay from point of origin to point of destination. Service Provider shall be responsible for all claims for loss, damage, injury or delay. Service Provider's liability shall begin when it signs the bill of lading and has received any such goods and shall continue until such time as Service Provider receives a signed delivery receipt from the proper named consignee and nothing remains to be done by Service Provider to deliver the shipment to the consignee. The parties acknowledge and agree that Service Provider's liability be equal to the shipper's invoice value of such product(s) together with freight charges, less any salvage allowance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Service Provider's liability shall not exceed the limits of Service Provider's cargo insurance, and any excess coverage secured on the shipment giving rise to the claim. Service Provider shall, at Forwarder's option and direction, and upon demand, either pay Forwarder directly or authorize Forwarder to deduct the amount of the claim from the amount Forwarder owes Service Provider.
 - ii. In the event Service Provider is found to be liable for any claim for loss or damage, Service Provider agrees to pay all costs incurred in returning the damaged product to the point of origin, or other points, as instructed by

Forwarder, and/or disposing of all damaged Product as instructed by Forwarder, including the cost of expedited transportation service for the delivery of replacement product to Forwarder's Consignee. Irrespective of any provisions in Service Provider's tariffs, pricing agreements, schedules, rules, regulations or practices, Service Provider's liability for loss, damage or delay shall be governed solely by the terms of this Master Agreement.

- iii. Service Provider's liability hereunder may not be limited by any provision purporting to limit Service Provider's liability, including without limitation, any Transport Document, common Service Provider tariff, addendum, schedule, service guide or similar document issued by or on behalf of Service Provider or any provision of any such Transport Document, tariff, addendum, schedule, service guide or similar document which Service Provider may attach to or incorporate into any Addendum or Schedule. The use of or reference to any such Transport Document, tariff, schedule, service guide or similar document or any provision(s) thereof shall not alter in any manner the terms of this Master Agreement or any additional Addendum or Schedule. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any Transport Document, tariff, schedule, service guide or similar document, this Agreement shall control. Willful misconduct, (as defined hereafter), fundamental material breach or conversion on the part of Service Provider, its employees, officers, directors or Service Providers shall vitiate any and all liability limitations contained in this Master Agreement.
- iv. In the event of claim for concealed damage, i.e. a claim where the shipping container shows no visible evidence of loss or of damage, and where, at the time of delivery to the consignee, no notation was made on the delivery receipt or otherwise that a loss or damage was claimed or noted, Forwarder will attempt to notify Service Provider of the claim within fifteen days of the date of delivery. In the event a claim for concealed damage or loss is not made to Service Provider within fifteen days, Service Provider shall not be liable for the claim unless it can be proven conclusively that Service Provider was at fault.
- v. The provisions of 4. shall survive cancellation, termination, or expiration of this Master Agreement and any additional Addendum or Schedule.
